Ward Lumber to sponsor Chicken Harvest Seminar

Jay, NY. – Ward Lumber and Poulin Grain is sponsoring a Chicken Harvest Seminar at Asgaard Farm in AuSable Forks on Saturday, July 31 from 8:30am until approximately 11:30am. This seminar is for anyone who is interested in raising their own poultry and learning to harvest their own chickens.

The guest speaker is Terry Cushing, Animal Nutrition Specialist for Poulin Grain. Terry has extensive training in animal nutrition & specializes in poultry, equine & swine nutrition & management. Learn the proper techniques to harvest meat birds from a farm boy that grew up on a farm raising 4000 meat birds annually.

Each attendee will be able to take home their own freshly processed whole chicken. Additional fresh chickens will be available for purchase at the end of the seminar.

The host, Asgaard Farm & Dairy, once a poultry and dairy farm, is again a fully integrated, working family-owned and operated farm that produces farmstead cheeses and other dairy, meat, and poultry products for the local community. Visit one of the most beautiful agricultural settings anywhere. This event is sponsored by Ward Lumber and Poulin Grain.

The cost of the seminar is $20 per person. To register, go to WardLumber.com or call 946-2110, X120. Space is limited to 20 attendees. Minimum age is 16.

Ward Lumber is a two-unit building materials supplier with locations in Jay and Malone, NY. Ward Lumber also operates Ward Lumber Homes, a pre-fabricated home package and components supplier. One of the largest private employers in Essex County, Ward Lumber manages over 6,000 acres of timberland and operates one of New York State's largest white pine sawmills and planing mills.
