Rolland Tromblee Celebrated 35 Year Anniversary at Ward Lumber

Jay, NY. – Rolland Tromblee, Pro Account Representative for Ward Lumber's Jay Store, recently celebrated his 35 year anniversary of employment at Ward Lumber.

Rolland has worked in many capacities over the years including truck driver, delivery scheduling, sales counter, truss design and store manager. His current position is Pro Account Representative. Paul Mintz, Jay Store Manager, said "There are very few current employees and customers who can remember Ward Lumber before Rolland Tromblee. His consistent and long-lived commitment to this company not only sets the standard for which the rest of our team strives, it's emblematic of the long-term relationship we look to build and offer our customers."

Rolland has been involved in a wide scope of building projects, from home additions to large custom homes, and barns to commercial buildings serving a wide spectrum of customers including residential home builders, commercial builders and homeowners. Debby Straight, Chief Financial Officer, said "Rolland really listens to our customers. That's why he stands out and is so well known and respected in the building community". Jay Ward, President, said "Many customers have told me that Rolland takes care of the details like no one else takes care of details. For 35 years, he's not only provided great customer service, but has taught and mentored many of our employee team including me". Rolland has been the recipient of many awards, including Team Member of the Month and sales achievement awards. He has completed many industry courses and seminars, including Arxx Installation, Green Building, Kitchen Design and Builder and Remodeler Wood Products.

Ward Lumber is a two-unit building materials supplier with locations in Jay and Malone, NY. One of the largest private employers in Essex County, Ward Lumber manages over 6,000 acres of timberland and operates one of New York State's largest white pine sawmills and planing mills.
