Ward Lumber Announces Team Members of the 1st Quarter

Jay, NY. - Jay Ward, President of Ward Lumber, announced the Team Members of the 1st Quarter, 2013, who are being recognized for outstanding achievements and contributions they have made to Ward Lumber.

Linda White, Assistant Store Manager in Malone, was selected for the Malone Store. Dave Brusco, Malone Store Manager, said “Linda has worked for Ward Lumber for over thirteen years, and has worn many hats while working her way up to Assistant Store Manager. She is well versed in all aspects of our operation, and gives her all every day by sharing her many talents.”

Matt Parks, Receiver, was selected for the Jay Store. Mark Lacy, Yard Manager, said “Matt has been doing a great job as the Jay store receiver and as our manager trainee. He recently did an exceptional job filling in as a CDL delivery driver while we hired and trained two new drivers.”

Shelly Thwaites, Customer Accounts Representative at the Corporate Headquarters in Jay was selected for the Support Center. Debby Straight, Chief Financial Officer, said “Shelly has been instrumental in implementing and communicating the ongoing technology enhancements available to our customers, including e-invoicing, e-statements and Power Pro, 24/7 customer account access. She also has a very friendly demeanor which our customers really appreciate.”

Ward Lumber is a two-unit building materials supplier with locations in Jay and Malone, NY. One of the largest private employers in Essex County, Ward Lumber manages over 6,000 acres of timberland and operates one of New York State’s largest white pine sawmills and planing mills.
