Ward Lumber to Host Equine Night

Jay, NY. – Ward Lumber is hosting a free Equine Night on Tuesday, February 19 from 6:30pm – 9:00pm for equine enthusiasts.

Seminar topics include: Economics of feeding horses (hay, grain and supplements); the value of horse feed and places that money is wasted; meeting the nutritional requirements for horses that cannot eat forage i.e. senior horse; role of protein in diet--how protein and fat work together. There will also be a question and answer session.

The guest speaker is Dr. Stephen Duren, a native of Soda Springs, Idaho. He completed his Bachelor of Science in Animal Sciences at the University of Idaho and earned a Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy in Equine Nutrition and Exercise Physiology from the University of Kentucky. Dr. Duren, a former consulting equine nutritionist for Kentucky Equine Research, Versailles, Kentucky, has formed his own company, Performance Horse Nutrition, LLC, and consults with horse owners throughout the world. Dr. Duren is also the co-author of the book "The Concise Guide to Nutrition In The Horse", and has consulted with horse owners world-wide, including Australia, Japan, Canada, and United Arab Emirates.

The event is free, and there will be prize drawings, pizza and refreshments. To register, go to WardLumber.com or call Kim at 946-2110, Ext. 120.
