Mark Lacy Promoted to Store Manager at Ward Lumber

Jay, NY. – Ward Lumber announces the appointment of Mark Lacy to Store Manager.

Mark began his career in 2008 at Ward Lumber in counter sales in Jay. Mark worked in various capacities in the Jay store since then as Pro Sales Assistant, Assistant Manager and Yard Manager before accepting his current position of Store Manager.

Jay Ward, President, said “Mark’s diversified experience at our store in Jay over nearly 7 years made him an ideal fit to lead our Jay store team as store manager. Mark’s attention to detail and his ability to teach, lead and follow through will serve Ward Lumber well.”

Mark is originally from West Chazy, NY and now lives in Jay, NY. He is married to Stephanie Trumbull Lacy, and they have four children. When Mark is not working at Ward Lumber, he enjoys boating and football. He is also an accomplished bowler, and volunteers as the assistant bowling coach for the Au Sable Valley Central School men's and women's bowling teams. Mark served his local community in Vermont as a volunteer fire fighter for five years.

Ward Lumber is a two-unit lumber and building materials supplier along with hardware, paint and feed with locations in Jay and Malone, NY. One of the largest private employers in Essex County, Ward Lumber manages over 6,000 acres of timberland and operates one of New York State’s largest white pine sawmills and planing mills.
