Ward Lumber closes Plattsburgh location

Jay, NY – After 10 years on Rt 3 in Plattsburgh, NY Ward Lumber will close its store there on Saturday, November 4.

With the ever increasing cost of doing business in a competitive marketplace the decision was made to close the store.

Ward Lumber will continue to service the many loyal customers in the Plattsburgh market from their locations in Jay, NY and Malone, NY. Both of these locations as well as the manufacturing facility in Jay are experiencing continued success and will remain a part of the Ward Lumber family.

A portion of the dedicated employee team from the Plattsburgh location will be offered employment at other Ward Lumber locations.

The Ward Lumber property at 568 Rt 3 will be sold after the closing and inventory is moved to other locations.
